

BREAKPOINT BOOKING

Breakpoint Booking Internship Program

Breakpoint Booking is currently seeking an intern/assistant to help out with daily operations. This would be perfect for college students, students seeking experience in the music industry or recent college or high school graduates seeking a music business internship.

The candidate will work directly with the agency owner and the agents to maintain daily operations as it pertains to the company calendar, bookings, marketing, event contracting (using Gigwell booking software), event booking, research, databases, social media and more. Experience using Google Workspaces a plus.

This is a remote, work from home position that requires organization, passion, and dependable folks who are self-motivated self-starters.
